2016 – 2017 Tuition Rates

Tuition payments are done through our online system “the Studio Director”.

We accept Visa and MasterCard.

Tuition is Due prior to the 1st of each month. Tuition is based on a yearly fee, and may be paid in full at time of registration (giving you one month FREE). For your convenience, it may be split into equal payments due prior to the 1st of each month. You may elect to process recurring payments which can be setup online via “the Studio Director”. It is important to note that tuition is considered late after the 5th of each month and a $25.00 late fee will automatically be applied to your account. With that it is your responsibility to ensure the form of payment provided to us is current. Tuition is not pro-rated for absences or closings. All payments are non-refundable and non-transferable. If you elect to use our automatic recurring payments, it is your responsibility to enter new card if your card on file expires or has changed. Automatic recurring payments is set for balance due for payments on tuition, costume, studio fees, or supplies. Additionally, if a payment is declined you are subject to an administrative late fee of $25.00.

Automatic recurring payments are set for balance due for payments on tuition, costume, studio fees, or supplies.

Returned checks are subject to a $25.00 service charge and payment must be replaced by cash or money order.

All payments are non-refundable and non-transferable.

Students are automatically registered through June and Company students through July. A minimum of two weeks’ written notice must be given to the office prior to withdrawing from any classes and tuition is due during the two-week period, whether a student attends class or not

If a student wishes to drop a class, a written two-week notice must be provided to the office (please use the Drop/Add Form). Tuition will still be due during those two weeks whether a student attends class or not. Missed classes may not be pro-rated. If Tuition is thirty days overdue, students may not be able to participate in classes. In June, all accounts must be cleared or students will not perform in the year-end recital.

In June, all accounts must be clear or students will not perform in the year-end recital.

If a student’s account is 120 days overdue, the student may be withdrawn from classes. You are still liable for past due payments, late fees, costume balance and any other financial commitments outstanding.
